Around the turn of the 19th Century, the two sister companies Franz Mayer of Munich and F.X.Zettler belonged to the worldwide renown and appreciated stained glass studios. Famous for their sophisticated "Munich style", they produced stained glass windows of highest and finest quality for more than 50 cathedrals and thousands of churches just for their American clientele.

The Mayer studio, now owned and operated by the 5th generation, is still strongly obliged to its tradition and heritage: in style, qualities, and values. Together with their crew of artists, glass painters and master craftsmen, they take all their efforts to meet the high quality, details, and transparency of the traditional windows – even nowadays.

The self-conception of quality and workmanship combined with the ability to explore and improve has made Franz Mayer of Munich one of the international leading studios for stained glass, architectural glass and mosaic.

Type of Business:

Around the turn of the 19th Century, the two sister companies Franz Mayer of Munich and F.X.Zettler belonged to the worldwide renown and appreciated stained glass studios. Famous for their sophisticated "Munich style", they produced stained glass windows of highest and finest quality for more than 50 cathedrals and thousands of churches just for their American clientele.
The Mayer studio, now owned and operated by the 5th generation, is still strongly obliged to its tradition and heritage: in style, qualities, and values. Together with their crew of artists, glass painters and master craftsmen, they take all their efforts to meet the high quality, details, and transparency of the traditional windows – even nowadays.
The self-conception of quality and workmanship combined with the ability to explore and improve has made Franz Mayer of Munich one of the international leading studios for stained glass, architectural glass and mosaic.

Around the turn of the 19th Century, the two sister companies Franz Mayer of Munich and F.X. Zettler belonged to the worldwide renown and appreciated stained glass studios. Famous for their sophisticated "Munich style", they produced stained glass windows of highest and finest quality for more than 50 cathedrals and thousands of churches just for their American clientele.

The Mayer studio, now owned and operated by the 5th generation, is still strongly obliged to its tradition and heritage: in style, qualities, and values. Together with their crew of artists, glass painters and master craftsmen, they take all their efforts to meet the high quality, details, and transparency of the traditional windows – even nowadays.

The self-conception of quality and workmanship combined with the ability to explore and improve has made Franz Mayer of Munich one of the international leading studios for stained glass, architectural glass and mosaic.

Human Life International's mission is to defend the authentic God-given rights and dignity of all human persons from conception until natural death, and to promote the natural family through education, outreach, advocacy and service. Founded in 1981, HLI is the only Catholic grassroots, pro-life missionary organization working on six continents to defend the sacredness of all human life. HLI's pro-life missionaries travel the world to organize, train and equip pro-life leaders to defend their cultures against governments and non-governmental organizations that promote an anti-life and anti-family agenda in which unborn children and the natural family are seen as obstacles to progress and development. While HLI is completely faithful to the Holy Father and the Magisterium, and works with Catholic dioceses worldwide, we are also ecumenical and work with people of all faiths to advance the cause of life.

Fraternal Organizations

Knights of Columbus
1 Columbus Plaza
New Haven, CT 06510
Tel: 203-752-4000
Website: kofc.org

Type of Business:

Through the efforts of Father Michael McGivney, a 30-year-old parish priest, and his parishioners at St. Mary's Church in New Haven, the Connecticut legislature officially chartered the Knights of Columbus as a fraternal benefit society March 29, 1882. Though the organization has grown to more than 14,000 councils and 1.8 million members across the United States, Canada, Philippines, Mexico, Poland, Ukraine, South Korea, the Caribbean and Central America, it has been true to its founding principles of charity, unity and fraternity for 133 years.

The foresight of Father McGivney, who was declared venerable by the Holy See in 2008 as part of his ongoing cause for canonization, brought about one of the world's foremost Catholic lay organizations. The Knights of Columbus is a model of Christian service to charitable causes in local communities and across the world. In 2013, Knights contributed more than $170 million and 70.5 million volunteer service hours to worthy causes across the globe. Throughout the last decade, the totals exceed $1.515 billion to charity and 682 million hours of volunteer service in support of charitable initiatives.
